SENIOR ADVISORY COUNCIL

The officers were President, Joseph Gianelli; Vice President, Jean Coppinger; Secretary, Miriam Foley; Treasurer, Anthony Bruno.

The members were Betty Bannon, Barbara Boyd, Bart Conte, Donald Drane, Elaine Fleming, Gloria Furbush, Annette Gearty, Barbara Harrison, Robert Kenefick, Patricia Landrigan, Mary Guppi, Louis Malatesta, Evelyn Miles, E. Robert Miles, William O'Brien, Anna Pasquale, Helen Richter, Priscilla Scruton, Joseph Quigley, Irene Walsh, Margaret Wilson.

The Senior Advisory Council is composed of the Senior class officers and one elected representative from each Senior homeroom.

The most important activity of the Council was the Senior Promenade, held annually in the gymnasium. All the details that were involved in planning for this social affair were successfully accomplished through the conscientious efforts of the members of the advisory committees. The orchestra, decorations, and refreshments were all pronounced excellent by those who attended. Although our Senior class was suffering from a man shortage when many of our boys left to enter the Armed Forces, our prom was a great success.

The Council also conducted a successful War Bond Drive. During this national emergency the Council is doing its utmost to aid our country.

Later in the year the activity of the Council was centered on plans for Class Day, Graduation, and the Senior Reception.

The Senior Advisory Council was directed by the able advice of Miss Katherine L. Baker and Mr. Eric Harrison, the class advisers.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Entering Medford High, we, as sophomores, soon discovered the humble position that was to be ours as members of the school's lowest class. No longer were we the idols of seventh and eighth graders! No longer did we have that feeling of superiority that goes with upper classmen! Instead, it was for us to worship the lofty seniors. Innocent as we were, we expected the juniors and seniors to guide us with loving care to our various classes and study rooms. Alas! Need we say more to those who, misguided, discovered the locked door that lay beyond that mysterious flight of stairs on the third floor. However, with the election of officers our class became more of a unit.

Remember Peter Toland as our president welcoming us to Medford High. He had an able corps of officers in Barbara Harrison, Vice President; Jean Raye, Secretary; and Eddie Brooks, Treasurer.

Then there was that super sophomore hop. Remember? We certainly showed that we were sufficiently organized in our planning to make a success of our first class activity! Don't forget, too, that we won our turkey-day football game that year with the two drumsticks going to Malloy and Murphy for their outstanding playing in the classic battle.

Three Years

We are very proud of the citation and medal awarded in our sophomore year to the group who made a survey of Medford's recreational facilities. Among those active in this group were Phyllis Wheeler, Lucille Metcalfe, Margaret Breen, John Callahan, John Puma, and Frank Connors, with Mr. Garrity as faculty adviser. Six or seven recommendations were made for improvements, all but three of which were adopted. This was the first instance in the history of Medford High that a sophomore group received such an award in open competition.

Then, too, our class was well represented on the honor roll that year with highest honors going to Harriet Corbin, Barbara Harrison, Helen Homsy, Irene Lord, Richard Malatesta, Gloria Maxwell, Shirley Morris, Evelyn Robbins, Pauline Robinson, Caroline Sulprizio, June Turner, Phyllis Wheeler, and Maria Williams.

Through that first year we went along together. Our class, closely knit in friendship, felt as a whole the loss of two of our companions, Charles Neiman and Arthur Seche, who, taken from our midst, will always be remembered; the one for his good nature; the other for his ever-jovial spirit.

Thus we passed the first year of our new life as high school pupils looking forward with ever-increasing school spirit to our next two years.

THE JUNIOR YEAR

After our naive days as sophomores had passed, we emerged into one jolly, although hectic, junior year, one more step toward our goal. That 1942-43 year saw many changes in the usual school functions because of the war.

The election of Robert Miles for president, Evelyn Miles as vice president, Evelyn Minkle as secretary, and Joe Quigley as treasurer commenced our junior activities. The autumn months saw us cheering our excellent football eleven on to fame and championship while the temperature fluctuated from hot to extreme cold. Do you, by chance, recall traveling over to the Arlington game wrapped in steamer rugs, but still nearly walking blocks of ice? Then as the trophies and glory of football days moved on, the hockey squad, with classmates Jackie Garrity and Dick Desmond among their number flashed through to top honors in the Greater Boston League and the Metropolitan Boston Championship. It was certainly a champion year when the boys added track, and, not to be outdone, the girls, with juniors, Gloria Guido and Gloria Cammerata, placed basketball on the lengthening list.

The highest honor and honor rolls published the first quarter were both more than doubled in June with Gloria Maxwell, June Turner, Mary Morry, Margaret Wilson, Betty Bannon, Marion Borden, Anthony Bruno, Marie Anderson, Marjorie Burr, Harriet Corbin, Helen Dorherty, Arthur Erlandson, William Fitzgerald, Rlth Gilbert, Laura Hutchings, Louise McCarron, Mary Ward, Richard Slawson, and Robert Najjar, a few of those who won mention on the coveted list.

THE SENIOR YEAR

By far the saddest event of our junior year was the death of our beloved classmate, Henry H. Cameron, Jr., who heroically gave his life in an attempt to save a worker overcome by gas fumes. "Hank," upon completion of his junior year, left school to join the Navy and was completing his basic training at Newport, R. I. when he made the sacrifice.

In keen competition with the other classes, we held many interesting bond drives, such as the auctioning and assembling of an ambulance. Janet Rush and Joan Clark, each buying a $1000 bond, saved the voices of auctioneers Bob Miles, Val Smith, and Marty Welch, and won the admiration of everyone. Do you recall our pride as we saw the blue and white "Minute Man Flag" unfurl in the breeze that winter day when we were juniors?

The necessity of going to class with our coats on resulted in the month of February being school-less and no junior nor sophomore dances. The Senior Prom, with all classes invited, was, however, a wonderful success.

Then as the below-zero days passed by, spring came, bringing with it the revelation of many hidden talents of our Medford High School students. Yes, on that warm spring night we gathered in Chevalier Auditorium to see our classmates hold up their end with the seniors and sophomores. The Frolics of 1943 cast included Pat and Lee Brennan in "A Bicycle Built for Two;" Ann Frazier, Maureen Blair, Marie Bennett, Bertha Lentine, Virginia Verdi, Stanley Zarakov, and John Downes in the "Floradora Sextet;" Elaine Fleming, Barbara Sarty, Harriet Petroski, Patricia Armstrong, and Amalia Perozzi as "Yankee Doodle Girls;" Amato Ciampa in the "Queen City Four;" and Stanley Zarakov in "Night at the Opera." Eileen Quessey, Billy O'Brien, Connie Garfield, and Amato Ciampa thrilled the attentive audience by their solos. The Frolics served excellently to bring back to us pleasant memories of a delightful, eventful year at dear old Medford High.

Senior! At last that sophisticated, dignified word applied to us! Our suave manner as we earnestly directed an unsuspecting young sophomore to the "first-floor elevator," betrayed that we were the intellectual leaders and socially superior members of Medford High School. While sophomores ourselves, we envied the supremacy of upper classmen; during our junior year, we tried to attain some measure of their distinction; and finally as proud Seniors, we realized all our ambitions and desires for complete domination had been achieved.

Swiftly, almost without our perceiving it, the busy days of schoolwork and scholastic activities sped by. With able class officers, President Joseph Giannelli, Vice President Jean Coppinger, Secretary Miriam Foley, and Treasurer Anthony Bruno, to counsel and guide us, we enthusiastically participated in the happiest time of our three years in high school. Gay, chattering students in the crowded corridors, that hopeless search for books in a small, over-worked locker, the famous last-minute scramble for knowledge before report cards appeared, colorful proms, sport dances, and patriotic bond-selling campaigns—all these little events were part of the Senior's exciting career. With an expectant eye, we followed the hard-hitting, often-victorious Mustangs "stampede" their foes on the football field and add new glory to the name of Medford High School. Our outstanding and successful hockey players, league title holders, and our brilliant basketball and track teams only increased this reputation for conspicuous athletic ability. Such learned members of the senior class as Margaret Wilson, Gloria Maxwell, and Juel Warren helped to maintain our long record of high scholastic attainment. Certainly the Class of 1944 has by its accomplishments eagerly upheld and even surpassed the traditions and ideals of past graduating classes.

Like all good things, our wonderful Senior year drew to a close too soon. Instead of the glorious feeling of independence we imagined would be ours, we found sorrow in the thoughts of leaving familiar classrooms, understanding, sympathetic teachers, and beloved school-time companions. Already many of the Class of 1944 had gone forth courageously on far-flung battlefields to bring victory and peace to a world ravaged by war. Their valiant deeds in the service of God and country will be a symbol to us of true faith and devotion. Now, as alumni, we too must sadly depart from the hallowed halls of Medford High School. Taking with us all our precious memories and retaining hope always in our hearts, we shall continue to seek bright horizons that are forever wider, forever new and challenging.

On May 20, 1943, we juniors, as marshals escorted the departing seniors through the exercises of their Class Day. At the close of the indoor ceremonies, the girls patriotically upheld an immense flag while they marched from the Chevalier Auditorium along Forest Street to the main door of the school where the marshals formed a line on each side of the stairway. There they remained during the outdoor exercises.

CLASS DAY

Because of war conditions the marshals discarded the usual custom of uniformity in dress at the Reception. Here they ushered the gay seniors through the reception line and later led the Grand March.

Again at Cousen's Gymnasium on graduation night, carrying small American flags, the marshals dressed in street length white dresses, presented an attractive picture as they escorted the graduates through their final festivity. It was a gala time for the chosen juniors. That Class Day, 1943, marked the beginning of our activities for this our Senior year.

Senior Prom

On December third, the gala event of our school year, sponsored by the Class of '44, took place in the Medford High School Gymnasium. At last the hour of the long-awaited and ever popular Senior Prom was at hand, and soon gay couples were arriving, eagerly expectant and prepared for an evening of fun. Ushers greeted them cordially, introducing them to class president, Joseph Giannelli, Headmaster and Mrs. Kendall, and the other patrons and patronesses.

Wartime regulations restricted the usual colorful decorations, but could not limit the many attractive gowns of varied hues or the festive atmosphere of the joviality, which highlighted the brilliant scene. Sweet strains of For The First Time and My Heart Tells Me floated across the dance floor, weaving their magic spell over the swaying figures. Although 12 o'clock with its closing waltz came too soon, the departing couples took with them a happy memory of an occasion long to be remembered as outstanding and completely successful.

Mustang Dance

Another week of school was over! As on other Friday nights, the Medford High gymnasium ought to be silent and empty—but instead, it was filled with soft music, smoothly dancing couples, and gay laughter. What was the cause of all this excitement, this happy crowd of eager and enthusiastic students?

Why, the Mustang Dance was in progress! Its admission, by War Bonds and Stamps, would aid in the purchase of a P-51 Mustang plane to bring swifter victory and peace. "Patriotic and lots of fun," the posters read, and their promise was fully realized. Under the genial guidance of Master-of-Ceremonies, Val Smith, the evening was high-lighted with talented performers, drawings for door prizes, and an entertaining elimination dance, the award for which was an unexpected and wriggling goldfish! The popular Swingsters rhythmically rendered the current favorite selections to complete the pleasure of the evening. As the sweet strains of Goodnight Sweetheart brought the Mustang Sport Dance to a successful close, each person present experienced a warm feeling deep inside, in the knowledge that through this unique affair the defeat of our aggressors had been brought a little closer.

Spring Revue

Tuesday evening, March 14, 1944, witnessed one of the highlights in the entertainment of our Senior year. Under the able direction of Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker, the Medford High School Concert Band, Dance Band, and All-Girl Choir presented an outstanding program. America's favorites, America's love songs, hit tunes, and memories were well featured. The Dance Band with its soloists and many instrumental numbers made a great hit with the audience. The performance, given by the All-Girl Choir, came also as a pleasant surprise.

Music has figured prominently throughout our high school years as a major part and as a great inspiration.

We are justly proud of our Music Department.

September 18, 1943

Melrose 6                      Medford 0

A thoroughly inexperienced Mustang eleven today dropped its opening game to a powerful Melrose team.

The Blue and Whifers played most of the contest without the assistance and guidance of Captain Joe Giannelli, the only member of the squad with any game experience to speak of, as Joe was injured in practice a few days before the opener.

September 25, 1943

Medford 32                      Leominster 14

This quiet little North Massachusetts town was invaded and subsequently trounced by the Blue and White team that displayed considerable improvement over the previous week's showing, to the tune of a 32-14 victory for the Mustangs.

The outstanding stars of the game were Joe Giannelli, Johnny Corbisiero, and George Morehouse. George accounted for three of the Mustang touchdowns, Johnny made one on a crash through tackle, and Joe picked up the other eight points by one touchdown and two successful placements.

October 2, 1943

Medford 24

Brockton 6

Gillis Memorial Field was muddy and the day was dark but the playing conditions didn't hamper the playing ability of Jim Sherwood and George Morehouse as the Mustangs beat Brockton in the 20th game of the Medford-Shoe City series by a 24-6 score.

October 12, 1943

Medford 14

Somerville 6

On this sunny, Columbus Day afternoon the mighty Medford Mustangs continued the 30-year old custom of not allowing their Somerville rivals to boast of a victory over the Blue and White, as Coach Pidgeon's boys picked up two touchdowns in the third period to overcome a six point lead and win the contest, 14-6.

The first half certainly looked bleak for the Mystics as the lads, acting confused and troubled, strove vainly to get underway against the visitors. Somerville, on the other hand, taking advantage of the breaks in the Medford defense, went to work and determinedly took yard after yard of home team territory, culminating one drive with a 15-yard dash by Charlie Osgood to the sole invader score of the contest.

When the Mustangs came out on the field at the beginning of the second half, it was with grim determination they took over the offside kickoff at the 35-yard line. From this point a sustained drive was put on featuring a couple of short gains by Jim Sherwood and Johnny Corbisiero, a 35-yard spring by George Morehouse, and an excellently timed spinner planned and carried out by Captain Joe Giannelli to bring the oval to the 2½-yard spot. Here, once again George Morehouse took over, crashing through tackle for the touchdown, Captain Joe breaking the tie with an upright splitting boot.

The second Mustang score was not long forthcoming, as the Red and Blue, finding they could not gain much yardage against the re-vitalized Mustangs, kicked to the home team 43 and the lads were off again.

Jim Sherwood and George Morehouse took the oval to the 18 on three successive runs. Now came a truly great piece of broken field running as our right halfback started to his left, turned and scooted through tackle, and zig-zagged through a host of would-be tacklers to make the tally 13-6.

The next play, the try for the point after, was a highlight of the game that will long live in the memories of all those who witnessed the contest. As Captain Giannelli stepped in to boot, a horde of Somervillites crashed through the Mustang defense to block the ball as it took off from the toe of the Blue and White leader. A Somerville player reached for the all-important oval but, as it bounced off his fingertips, it flew to the arms of George Morehouse who successfully carried the pigskin over the Somerville goal line.

That's all there was to it; Somerville was licked and the rest of the game was a scrimmage, featuring nothing worth mentioning, and the game ended 14-6.

October 16, 1943

Medford 20

Lawrence 6

Wallowing ankle-deep in mud and sparked by North Medford's pride and joy, George Morehouse, who raced more than 270 yards in all, the Blue and White chalked up a 20-6 win over previously unbeaten Lawrence High.

October 23, 1943

Everett 7

Medford 0

Despite the valiant efforts of two Medford backs, whom he carried over the goal line with him, Everett's hefty Nicholas Bernadino culminated a 40-yard drive in the second period of the game to score the single touchdown that beat the Mustangs.

Although several times during the afternoon Morehouse pass plays threatened to click, the Blue and White never could quite get underway against that powerful line that, nevertheless, dropped nine first downs to the Mystic men.

October 30, 1943

Medford 20

Newton 12

Twenty-five hundred fans at Gillis Memorial Field today saw the Newton High eleven take two touchdowns from highly favored Medford, but still go down in a 20-12 defeat.

November 6, 1943

Waltham 14

Medford 0

Playing against the team that was eventually to become the Eastern State Champions, the Mustangs today dropped a 14-0 loss to a far superior Watch City eleven.

November 13, 1943

Arlington 13

Medford 7

More than 4000 fans at Gillis Memorial Stadium today saw a fast-moving Ostergren-coached eleven take well-timed advantage of a series of breaks in the Mustang strategy to upset the Blue and White by a score of 13-7 in the most heart-breaking of all the season's games.

November 25, 1943

Medford 21

Malden 0

Before a cheering holiday throng at Gillis Field, the fighting Medford Mustangs took the lead in the 56-year-old Medford-Malden series by overcoming the invaders with a score of 21-0 making the series record 25 wins by Medford, 24 for the Golden Tornado, and seven tie games.

The Blue and White functioned as a well trained unit, with standouts being Johnny Corbisiero fullback who was responsible for two touchdowns, and Captain Joe Giannelli, who chalked up the third.

George Morehouse, the Mustang star who has been the principal ground gainer all season, has been hampered with a charleyhorse and it was found necessary to take him out of play early in the game. Hindered as he was, George still had given a fine account of himself, and as he limped from the field, the fans rose and gave him as thrilling an ovation as had been given to any Mystic man all season.

After setting up almost singlehandedly the opening score in the first period, John Corbisiero not only drove over from the two but also crashed through the line for the point after.

Early in the second period, after Jim Sherwood had made a sparkling punt runback, Joe Giannelli and Johnny Corbisiero brought the pigskin to the  $\frac{1}{2}$ -yard line. After two unsuccessful tries, Johnny finally brought the ball to rest over the line, and Captain Giannelli split the uprights and Malden's visions of victory with beautiful placement.

The third score was set up by a sustained drive featuring Joe Giannelli, Johnny Corbisiero, and Jack King, with Captain Joe carrying the oval over from the two, later getting off another fine placement, making the final score Medford 21, Malden 0.

Outstanding in the backfield, as we have said before, were Johnny Corbisiero and Joe Giannelli; while in the line Al Monaco, Vaughan Bogosian, Joe Quigley, and Vin Zampell stood out. Honorable mention goes to the rest of the team, with Jim Sherwood and Jack King taking a great deal of the credit. Needless to say, say, George Morehouse deserves, also, much loud applause.

SUMMARY

Looking back over the season, we cannot say that we have not done well for ourselves. When one comes right down to facts, it can be seen that our losses this year were almost unavoidable. Perhaps if Melrose had been met a little later in the season, she could have been defeated, but we played Melrose at the start when it had the edge on us, and nothing could be done about it.

Waltham and Everett were much stronger than we, and it was only right they should win. It should be noted, however, that the team certainly did themselves proud in those affrays.

The Leominster, Newton, Brockton, and Lawrence contests can be passed by without much comment; the record speaks for our team there.

The only thing that can be said about the Arlington loss is that it was a tragic example of the great part that "breaks" play in football.

The two main rivals we vanquished, and when a season can be completed in which we've beaten Somerville and Malden, we can say that that season was a success.

Six of our boys made All-Scholastic berths: Joe Giannelli, George Morehouse, Jim Sherwood, Vaughan Bogosian, Al Monaco, and Bruce Reed. Vaughan and Joe played for the G. B. I. All Stars who beat the North Shore All Stars 13-4 at Lynn Manning Bowl. Joe was co-captain of that team with Arlington's Mel Massuco.

The season was long and we guess we can call it a successful one and hope that next year's team can do as well, if not better.

For the third consecutive year, the Medford High School soccer team overpowered its league opponents to capture the Greater Boston Interscholastic League championship. This year wartime conditions allowed three schools only to send teams on the field. They were Medford, Watertown, and Belmont.

Medford chalked up a season's record of seven wins, four ties, and two losses. Among their non-league opponents were the Tufts Junior Varsity team, the Harvard B Varsity team, and the Exeter Academy team. Because the weather conditions interfered, two games, one with Governor Dummer Academy and the other, a return game with the Harvard team, had to be called off.

Medford's first defeat was administered by the Harvard B Varsity; the second, by the "British Cruisers," a team comprised of British sailors.

High points of the season were a 1-0 win over Exeter Academy, and a 3-1 defeat of the Tufts' Junior Varsity team. The captain was selected before each game by Coach Allyn B. Stillman.

The team comprised the following: Jerome Brennan, Henry Cavaleiri, Joseph Feneck, George Bardaro, James Gallo, Peter Passatempo, Arthur D'Errico, Joseph De Biase, Haig Ohanian, Kenneth Feltch and George Kyle.

BASKETBALL

After completing a successful season of eight wins and four losses in league competition, Medford High received an invitation to the M. I. T. Tournament, the first since 1938. Medford defeated defending champion Attleboro in the first round by the score of 42-35. In the semi-finals Medford was defeated by Somerville, the tournament champion, but this came only after Medford had given them the most trouble of any team this season. After a nip and tuck battle the final score was 38-31.

The success of this year's team is due to the handling of Coach Bohn and Captain P. Paglucia and the co-operation of all those on the squad.

For the second consecutive year the Medford High School hockey team captured the Eastern Massachusetts Championship, although it had to be content to share top honors with Needham. Sweeping through a tough G. B. I. schedule with only one loss and a tie, the Mustangs entered the finals with the other league winners, Needham, Hudson, and St. Patricks of Stoneham. Easily defeating St. Patricks, 7-1, Medford then met Needham which had previously defeated Hudson at the Boston Arena, trailing 2-1 with only a scant two seconds to play, Needham tied the score. These teams then battled furiously for two overtime sudden-death periods without scoring. Finally the coaches and the league officials concurred to call the game a tie.

Jack Garrity and Dick Desmond stood out head and shoulders above any of the players in the league. Jack, who was elected the league's best player, led the G. B. I. with 16 goals and 11 assists, totaling 26 points. Proving the toughest goalie in the league to beat, Dick had four shutouts and stopped all but 26 shots!

Five members of the squad were chosen to play against a potent Catholic High team of Montreal on Washington's Birthday. They were Jack Garrity, Jerry Brennan, Charlie McNair, Dick Desmond, and Johnny Corbisiero.

The following were members of the 1944

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Though the girls were unsuccessful in their attempts to win their only two games of the season, they fought with all the ability and vigor of which they were capable. The score of the Winchester game was Medford 0, Winchester 5. Arlington defeated the Medford girls 7-0. The hockey team enjoyed its practices and games, especially when witnessing the prantics of Stella Baronian or Virginia Reynolds. Harriet Corbin captained the team, and "Pat" Constantine managed it.

Seniors who played on the varsity team are as follows: June Turner, Gloria Guido, Mina Koning, Mary Massa, Harriet Corbin, Stella Baronian, Bernice Wykes, and Ann Bogrette.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Those who attended the girls' basketball games this year are aware of the fighting spirit manifested by the varsity team whether it was winning or losing a game. More than once the team, when losing, crept up on the opposing team, giving it much worry and often shaking its self-confidence. The varsity team was lead on by our very able captain, Gloria Guido, who played brilliantly in every game; "Pat" Constantine was the highest scorer; June Turner the second highest. We should like to tell this to next year's opposition—"Watch out for "Pat" Constantine; she's good."

Thanks to Helen Fallon a fine manager and to Miss Stewart, our new coach, for the many new plays she taught us.

The seniors playing on the varsity team were Gloria Guido, June Turner, Ann Bogrette, Mina Koning, Harriet Corbin, Mary Morry, Mabel Heintz, Bernice Hughes, and Gloria Hassett.

The first team scores are as follows:

Medford 21—Winchester	44
Medford 28—Malden	36
Medford 46—Chevrus	27
Medford 27—Somerville	28
Medford 15—Belmont	34
Medford 30—Melrose	24
Medford 31—Arlington	45

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The girls held their softball practices in the boys' gym and at Playstead Park in West Medford. Under the able direction of Miss Luce they had an enjoyable season. Phyllis Corbin was captain of the team and Frances Esposito, the manager. June Turner is captain-elect for 1944.

Senior girls that played softball were Mina Koning, Farriet Corbin, June Turner, Phyllis Jeffrey, Jean Harrington, Mabel Heintz, Ann Bogrette, and Anna Ferullo.

The results of the games:

Medford 11—Belmont	14
Medford 7—Somerville	8
Medford 12—Arlington	14
Medford 9—Arlington	19

GIRLS' TENNIS

Because there was a lack of transportation facilities, the girls were deprived of the usual participation with other schools. Tennis enthusiasts, however, competed in an individual tournament in the girls' gymnasium. Sylvia Guild and Jean Wellington tied for first place with Jean finishing on top after giving a creditable performance in tennis technique. Praise is also extended to Sylvia Guild and Priscilla Fyfe for their finished playing.

STUDENT CABINET

President, Stanley Petroski

Vice President, Vaughn Gerish

Secretary, Marie Henry

The Student Cabinet is an organization consisting of the presidents of the sophomore and junior classes and of the school clubs and Senior class officers.

The members of the Cabinet are; Senior President, Joseph Gianelli; Senior Vice President, Jean Coppinger; Senior Secretary, Miriam Foley; Senior Treasurer, Anthony Bruno; Junior President, Walter Kuhlen; Sophomore President, Paul Skerry; Band, Vaughn Gerrish; French Groupe, Gloria Hassett; G. A. A., June Turner; Girls' Club, Marie Henry; "M" Club, George Morehouse; Stamp Club, Stanley Petroski; Technical Club, Charles Shannon; Business Girls' Club, Phyllis Jeffrey.

The Student Cabinet, a clearing house for club ideas, assists in various projects which concern the student body as a whole.

Because of the national emergency the sale of war stamps and bonds has been the major activity of the Cabinet this year. As a result of this our school flies the Treasury's Minute Man flag. The record all time high was the 30-day period in May and June, 1943; everyone of the 2200 students bought war bonds and stamps.

On the record of our school are commendations from Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Morgenthau, for the 43 jeeps, the field ambulance, the rubber life rafts and navy equipment bought with the money invested in bonds by our high school students.

Also this year our school purchased a $75,000 P-51 Mustang pursuit plane. Interest was stimulated by special assemblies, homeroom competition, rallies, and a Mustang Dance.

Supervised by Miss Gertrude Roughsedge, faculty adviser for the Student Cabinet our school campaign is co-operatively managed with the business students handling the money and accounts, the art department making War Savings Posters, and the music department offering band selections at our rallies.

The House of Delegates is the group in which the thoughts of the student body are expressed through the homeroom representatives.

This season money was raised for Thanksgiving baskets and for the Infantile Paralysis Fund. When aid was asked by the Red Cross for rolling bandages, the House of Delegates secured the help of the student body. Upon the request of the faculty committee, the members conducted a "clean-up" drive, particularly in the lunch-room and corridors. All members co-operated to their utmost with the board to which they had been elected in order to make their term a successful one.

PROTECTIVE DEPARTMENT

The duties of the members of the Protective Department are to help keep the school safe and orderly. The "P.D.'s" remain on duty in the corridors to help prevent wandering during class periods, direct strangers, induce orderly passing, and perform other duties as they present themselves.

ART CLUB

The Medford High School Art Club has completed another successful year in aiding students to further and improve their knowledge of the History of Art.

Because of the national emergency, many pupils left school either to work or to enter the armed services; therefore the club's activities were not too numerous this year. They did, however, hold their annual Christmas banquet. The members were encouraged to visit art museums, lectures, and fashion shows throughout the year.

In addition to benefiting members, this club has in past years aided many organizations. This year the students secured an address of an American boy, a prisoner of war in Germany. To this boy the club will send whatever they can to aid him and to let him know that America remembers him even though he is far from home.

The officers were President, Ernestine Rodway; Vice President, June Spongburg; Secretary, Jean Brawley; Treasurer, Flora Receptuto; Faculty Adviser, Miss Mary Pratt.

The Art Club wishes to thank its adviser Miss Pratt, for the work she has done in behalf of the club. Her work and advice have helped to make the club meetings both educational and beneficial.

M. H. S. GIRLS' CLUB

The M. H. S. Girls' Club was organized on December 7, 1933 for the purpose of creating friendship, giving service, and bringing Medford High School girls into a closer bond of companionship. The club pin is a six-pointed gold star with a blue "M" in the center.

This year the members accepted an invitation from the Vocational boys to a dance given in the gymnasium. In return they later invited the same boys to a dance of their own. Other entertainment included a Hallowe'en Party, a Mothers Tea, and an annual banquet with the reception of new members.

BUSINESS GIRLS' CLUB

President, Phyllis Jeffrey
Vice President, Gloria Maxwell
Recording Secretary, Claire Field
Corresponding Secretary, Jean Tabor
Treasurer, Marie Finnerty
Chairman of Program Committee, Mina Koning
Faculty Advisers, Miss Williamina V. MacBrayne, and Miss Thelma U. Hubbard

Activities for the year included a trip to the States Prison at Charlestown, a Bowling Party, and Theatre Party which proved to be a memorable event, the play being the Army Air Corps production, "Winged Victory."

Speakers for the regular meetings were chosen from the fields of business and business education with one exception when the club listened to a member of the WAVES.

The Technical Club was organized for boys who are particularly interested in mathematical and technical subjects.

The officers were President, Charles Shannon; Vice President, Robert Conary; Secretary, Robert Glancy; Treasurer, Vaughn Garrish; Faculty Adviser, Charles H. Rogus.

At several of the meetings this year prominent speakers addressed the club about technical subjects. Also motion pictures were shown demonstrating various industries. In addition, there was the annual Mathematical Treasure Hunt, in which all of the members participated.

The year was terminated as usual with a banquet at which returned service members were prominent.

Co-operative Store Training Class

The Co-operative Store Training Class of 1943-1944 has enrolled in its membership 21 young women who are particularly interested in retailing for a career.

This vocational course meets with the federal and state requirements under the George-Deen Act. It is a program based on a co-ordinated plan; namely, school instruction followed by store experience. Students enrolled in this course must attend school regularly for a period of at least 15 hours per week, and must receive an equal amount of actual store experience under supervision. The students receive wages while working which is helpful and gainful along with receiving valuable experience under trained personnel.

The subjects studied in this course are varied and numerous; some of these subjects are studied daily while others are studied only once or twice a week. The subjects taught by the Teacher-Co-ordinator, Mary Isabelle McKay, include:

English, Retail Selling, Economics of Retailing, Store Arithmetic, Textiles, Merchandise Information, Occupational Adjustments, Store Systems, Fashion, Color, Line and Design, Window Display, Marketing, and Advertising.

The young ladies in the course this year have completed a most successful year and deserve a great deal of credit.

SENIOR WAR BOND COMMITTEE

The purpose of the War Bond Committee was to promote the sale of War Bonds and Stamps among the members of the Senior class. Our bond drive was held the week of November 4. On the second day, the committee, under the guidance of the class advisers, held an auction in which all articles were purchased by Bond and Stamp sales. Martin Welsh and Val Smith, acting as auctioneers, started the program. Bidding was fast and furious as the seniors bought treasured mementoes such as slices of chocolate cake baked by John Cobisiero; George Morehouse's sweater with its famous number 71; a well-patched inner tube; shoe laces from two star football players; a girl's crumpled gym suit; and finally the entire football team was auctioned off.

Spurred on by the work of the committee, the Seniors purchased enough Bonds and Stamps to help raise the Treasury Minute Man Flag once more.

HOME ECONOMICS

The officers were: President, Helen Coulter; Vice President, Maureen Blair; Secretary, Marjorie Edmonstone; Treasurer, Anne Drummey.

The club had for its first speaker Miss Johnston, Superintendent of Nurses at the Lawrence Memorial Hospital who discussed nursing. Three girls, one from each class, gave interesting talks on their hospital life and answered many questions that were asked by the girls. We invited the girls to a showing of a moving picture sponsored by the Red Cross. All this made the girls more enthusiastic than ever to be nurses.

STAMP CLUB

President, Stanley Petroski

Vice President, Barbara Hart

Secretary, Edith Oliver

Treasurer, Harriett Petroski

Adviser, Miss Katherine Adams

The Stamp Club has terminated another prosperous year under the guidance of Miss Adams. This club was organized in 1934 to give the High School philatelists a chance to further their stamp activities. The club strives to promote good fellowship and interest in world affairs in postage stamps. During the meetings, stamp stories, quizzes, stamp exchanges, and lectures were given. A party was held by Miss Adams in her apartment where numerous rare stamps were displayed and a few valuable ones were given as prizes for games.

The orchestra, under the expert direction of Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker, has once again proved to be an outstanding organization. The orchestra demonstrated the effects of intensive training at several school and civic functions. The members who have rehearsed every week display an excellent spirit. They work with untiring effort day after day. This year's orchestra has set an example for others to follow. The string section of the orchestra had a prominent part in the Spring Revue.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Medford High School Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker provides an opportunity for musical advancement and enjoyment for students interested in the best types of music.

During the past year the Glee Club has participated in numerous assemblies and presented the annual Christmas Carols in the schools throughout the city. The Glee Club in collaboration with the band had an outstanding part in the Spring Revue.

This organization is composed of the boys who have won letters as athletic awards in various sports. The purpose of the club is to encourage school spirit at M. H. S. athletically, socially, and scholastically. The club strives to maintain a high respect for the letter "M" and to develop good sportsmanship on all occasions. Medford High is proud to know the "M" Club can always be relied upon to help in any school project.

VARSITY "M" CLUB

BAND

The Medford High School Band, under the leadership of Mr. Ralph I. Schoonmaker, continued to live up to the high standards made by previous bands. As in the past the band played at the football games in the fall, giving a superb exhibition of a well trained organization. It made a striking appearance in the traditional blue and gold uniforms. In addition the band played at several football rallies, assemblies, and various concerts. The outstanding event of the year in which the band featured was the Spring Revue held in March.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club was composed of 23 members this year. The limit of the club's activities was due to lack of snow, but much enthusiasm was displayed by the members. The club, however, created an interest for skiing in the school.

The officers were President, Robert Granger; Vice President, Raymond Gaffey, Jr.; Secretary-Treasurer, Barbara Ames; Faculty Adviser, Mr. Noble.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

It is the aim of the Vocational School to fit boys for useful employment through the development of the occupational skill required for the performance of satisfactory work under actual employment conditions in the following trades: automobile, cabinet making, electricity, machine shop, painting and decorating, printing, and sheet metal.

One half of the time is devoted to actual shop work and the other half to related and academic work. The laboratory method of instruction which is used in the related classes is very closely correlated with the shop work. This close tie-up assures a thorough training in shop and technical information.

The school attempts to prepare the boy morally, intellectually, and physically for the vocation for which he seems to be best fitted by nature, ability, and opportunity; at the completion of his course the school places the student in the industry trained for, keeps in touch with his progress, and encourages his promotion.

It is with deepest regret that we bring our joyous high school days to a close and step forth to meet the challenge of a troubled world. The present cannot be held, for it soon slips through our grasp; only what has happened is ours. We, the Class of 1944, shall always cherish each treasured remembrance of kind teachers, former acquaintances, and unforgettable days in Medford High School.
